

The 17th Annual

Legends and Young'uns

2022 VIRTUAL SYMPOSIUM

“Phenomenal Women Thriving In The New Normal Part II”

Older Women Embracing Life (OWEL) and the Johns Hopkins University MidAtlantic AIDS Education Training Center (MAAETC), in collaboration with Morgan State University School of Community Health and Policy, will host the Seventeenth Annual Legends and Young'uns Conference. This virtual regional conference will address the unique issues of women living with the challenge of HIV/AIDS, both those perinatally impacted and newly diagnosed the “Young'uns,” as well as those aging up and living well in their senior years – the “Legends.” Experts in the field will provide information pertaining to the treatment and management of HIV/AIDS during Monkeypox and the COVID-19 pandemic in women, including prevention, education, testing, life skills and resource information, via plenary presentations and interactivsessions.

TARGETED AUDIENCE: Females Only

Nurses, public health professionals, social workers, outreach workers, counselors, case managers and female consumers.
